Welcome to our celebration of Scottish spirits.

Scotland is justifiably renowned the world over for its superb distilleries. Traditionally, these have focused on producing quality whiskies but, increasingly, their offerings have become more and more diverse and adventurous. As a result, Scotland is now home to a large number of dedicated distillers producing an exciting choice of flavourful and distinctive spirits and liqueurs.

Aldi has brought together an enticing selection in our first ever Spirits of Scotland range, so you can taste for yourself the very best of Scotland. As an added bonus, as Aldi is also celebrating 25 years in Scotland, we have included an exclusive 25 Year Old Glen Marnoch Single Malt. Slangevar!
