

Cracking new job alert!

Do you love Easter eggs? Consider yourself a chocolate connoisseur? We're looking for 3 chocolate experts to become our official Chief Easter Egg Tasting Officers.

(Yes, really.)

Perks of the job? Taste a selection of Eggs from our Easter range!
Requirements? You've got to love Easter eggs.
Who? All ages.

What do I have to do?

If you're chosen, we'll send you a lovely bunch of Aldi Easter eggs for you to try out and taste. All you have to do is film your reviews to tell our Aldi fans which ones get your eggstra special Chief Easter Egg Tasting Officer seal of approval.

How do I apply?

Just make a short audition video and tell us your name, your fave Aldi chocolate and why you should be our Chief Easter Egg Tasting Officer — about a minute will do.

Email your video to:
AldiEasterTastingOfficer@McCann.com
with the subject line Chief Easter Egg Tasting Officer.

You have until the 15 March to get your entries in.
Hop to it!

When do I start?

Mark your calendar, if you're our lucky winner we'll need you to be available to taste the eggs at home between 22-29 March. If you don't hear back by the 19th March you haven't been successful.

Anything else?

Because you'll be filming your tasting sessions at home, a decent quality camera will come in handy.
A smartphone will do just fine.
Good luck!
